

GROUP “A” OFFENSES

Definitions of offenses reported are meant to provide a common denominator transcending local, state, and federal laws and not meant to be used for charging persons with crimes... NIBRS Handbook

Crime In Idaho - 1999

MURDER

- The willful killing of one human being by another -

The classification of this offense is based solely on police investigation as opposed to the determination of a court, medical examiner, coroner, jury, or other judicial body. Deaths caused by negligence, suicide, accident, or justifiable homicide are not included in the offense of murder. Attempts and assaults to murder are classified as aggravated assaults and not as murder.

The offense of burglary/breaking & entering is counted when there is forcible entry, unlawful entry (no force), or attempted forcible entry of a structure. Structure is defined for UCR purposes as a structural unit that is permanently fixed and/or used as an office, residence, or storehouse. Structures are considered to include, but not limited to the following: dwelling house, office building, school, church, house trailer (used as a permanent dwelling), barn, warehouse, etc.

A vehicle is not considered a structure under UCR definitions; therefore, auto burglary is not included in this category. Auto burglary crimes are counted under larceny/theft offense.

MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT

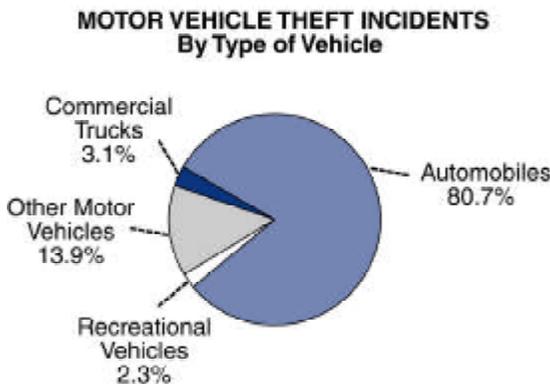

- The theft of a motor vehicle -

A motor vehicle is defined for UCR purposes as a self-propelled vehicle that runs on land surface and not on rails, and whose primary purpose is to transport persons. The following categories in this offense are: automobiles; buses; recreational vehicles; trucks; and other motor vehicles, i.e. motorcycles, scooters, mopeds, golf carts, snowmobiles, etc.

Tractors, farm and industrial equipment, and lawn mowers are not considered "motor vehicles" as the primary purpose is not to transport persons. Motor vehicle theft excludes taking for temporary use by those persons having lawful access to the vehicle. Included in the count of this offense is "joy riding".
